

ENG 101: Low-Stakes Assignment Rubric

Criteria	Accomplished 100.00 %	Proficient 85 to 100%	Developing 70 to 85%	Novice 0.00 to 69.00 %
Completeness 60%	Assignment fully addresses all aspects of the prompt and offers effective evidence from the course materials when relevant.	Assignment generally fulfills the prompt, but insights may be lacking or incomplete. More detail may have been needed.	Assignment either doesn't fulfill all of the assignment requirements, is lacking insight or relevant material from the course, and/or fails to offer adequate details.	Assignment is missing or does not fulfill the assignment requirements.
Depth of Thought 20%	Assignment presents and explores sophisticated and complex ideas through insightful reasoning, relevant supporting details, and robust critical analysis.	Assignment presents and explores increasingly complex ideas through deliberate reasoning, relevant supporting details, and critical analysis.	Assignment presents and explores ideas of some complexity, using adequate reasoning, relevant supporting details, and some basic analysis.	Assignment presents simplistic ideas with only basic reasoning and sparse organization; it includes few to no details to explain or support ideas and offers little to no analysis.
Clarity of Ideas 20%	Assignment communicates clearly at the local level with no (or extremely few and minor) errors.	Assignment generally communicates clearly at the local level, but more attention could be paid to sentence and paragraph structure, word choice, punctuation, spelling, and/or grammar.	Assignment is not clearly communicated at the local level; errors in sentence and paragraph structure, punctuation, vocabulary, spelling, and/or grammar have begun to impede meaning.	Assignment is extremely difficult to understand due to local errors such as sentence and paragraph structure, punctuation, vocabulary, spelling, and/or grammar.